Key Functions of Citizen Standing Committee on Fertilizer:

- The committee may advise concerned authority on necessary infrastructure development required for smooth handling and distribution of fertilizer.
- To evaluate the fertilizer requirement of the Gaon Panchayat and recommend on allocation of the fertilizer to Dept. of Agriculture.
- To evaluate and monitor the rationalization of retailer distribution at GP level for smooth handling of required fertilizer and advise companies to ensure sufficient retailers are appointed as per demand of Gaon Panchayat.
- To monitor the prices of fertilizer and advice on necessary actions to be taken to ensure fertilizer is sold at notified prices through PoS machine/application and payments are invariably received through UPI using QR Code to ensure 100% digital payment as per the Govt. of India mandate.
- To review the sub-allocation of fertilizer to the retailers to prevent hoarding and monopoly of the few retailers.
- To advise on joint verification of stocks by Department of Agriculture and representatives of the committee at retailers' godowns to match physical stock with iFMS stock to prevent hoarding, artificial shortage and black marketing.
- To address any other issues related to fertilizer that may arise from time to time.
